NEGROES IN THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

The fact that a negro boy (not a child, as before stated) has been admitted to the public school in this place, excites some indignation, and some parents have withdrawn their children from the school. But cui bono? It is the law of the land as declared by the Supreme Court. In the case of the State ex rel. David Stoutmeyer vs. James Duffy et als (7 Nev. Reports, pp. 342-362) the Court held, in effect, that where the Trustees of a public school refused to admit a negro, between the ages of six and eighteen, and a resident of the district, as a pupil, an application for mandamus should be granted to compel such admission. Sec. 50 of the school law (statutes of 1867) in so far as it excludes negroes from the public schools, is unconstitutional. While School Trustees cannot legally deny to any (such as a negro) resident person of properson. negro) resident person of proper age an equal participation in the benefits of the common schools; yet it is entirely with-in their power to send all blacks to one school and all whites to another; or, in other words, to make such classification, whether based on age, sex, race or any other existent condition as may seem to them best. The opinion was delivered by Justice Whitman, Chief Justice Lewis by Justice Whitman, Chief Justice Lewis concurring specially, and Justice Garber dissenting. It is not worth while to find fault with the decision of the majority on the Bench at the time this decision was made. The Justices were of the dominant party—a political monstrosity which is determined to break down all race distinction at whatever cost. That party violated its most solemn promise at the outbreak of the late war, and perverted a (so-called) struggle for the Union into a shameless crusade against men of their own blood and color. In furtherance of their wickedness they deluged the land with blood and overwhelmed the country with debt; they placed sacrilegious hands with debt; they placed sacrilegious hands upon the Constitution of our fathers, and with a perfidy unparalleled by the force of the bayonet procured the adoption of certain amendments destroying the original intention of the Consti ing the original intention of the Consti-tution. As negroes are now Senators, Governors and Judges, it is but logical and right that they should be admitted to the public schools. Why any indig-nation should be felt in regard to the admission of a negro to the public school when, under the bastard system govern-ing the country, that same boy may be Governor of the State, or Justice of the Supreme Court, or United States Sena-tor, is something beyond our comprator, is something beyond our compre-hension. We are not disposed to de-mur to one part of a system while acquiescing in the remainder. We regret that any trouble should result from this circumstance; yet when the fountain is corrupt, so the stream will be, and if we desire to correct these abominations we should begin at the

RUMOR .-- An unfounded rumor gained currency on the streets yesterday to the effect that certain ore was being surreptitiously removed from the Hermes mine. The rumor arose from the fact that an injunction had been laid upon the Hermes Company, and the Sheriff had been placed in charge of the mine. Day before yesterday counsel for the Kentucky Company, at whose instance the injunction was obtained, proposed to withdraw the injunction suit if the adverse party would release the bondsmen of the Kentucky Company from all liability which might result from the institution of the injunction suit. The counsel for the Hermes Company had a certain time is which to sign the stipulation, which they did subsequently, and then of course there could be no legal objection to the removal of the ore. The signing of the stipulation was not made known to the Sheriff and that officer, naturally supposing that the order of the Court was being disregarded, instituted inquiry from the counsel for the Kentucky Company, when he learned the true state of the case. injunction had been laid upon the Savenety Injuned. - Yesterday a miner, working in the Empire mine, met with an accident which in all probability will prove fatal. The unfortunate man is named Alfred Williams, and he is a nephew of Elijah Williams, of this place. The latter was working at the windlass, while Alfred was in the shaft, which is 115 feet deep. In landing a tub of dirt and stones, it happened that a rock weighing as much as ten pounds rolled off and fell, and struck Alfred on the on and fell, and struck Alfred on the head, inflicting a wound of such a dangerous nature that there is scarcely a possibility of his recovery. Drs. Bishop and Bergstein were called, and did all that could be done for the unfortunate man. He bled very freely, and it is feared that the loss of blood is sufficient to produce death. Williams now lies at a cabin near the Alps mine. cabin near the Alps mine.

OUR DELEGATION. - Senator Clapp is on the Committees on Mines and Mining Interests, Enrollment, Mileage, and Public Morals. Senator Wilson is a member of the Committees on Corporations, Ways and Means and Counties and County Boundaries. Mr. Shoaff, Committee on Printrng, of which he is Chairman. Mr. Wallace, Committees on Elections and Education. Mr. Craigne, Committees on Ways and Means, and Mines and Mining Interests.

Considerate.-A young man in this place met with a mishap the other day, which keeps him in-doors for a few days. Friends visited him to minister to his comfort, and two of them being waggishly inclined, concluded to give the matter a mirthful turn; so one of them presented the injured gentleman with a tin whistle, and the other gave him a "jumping jack." The gifts were highly appreciated.

FUNERAL OF CAPT. BAKER. Yest rday the remains of Capt. S. C. Baker were borne to the grave by his brethren of the Masonic fraternity. The large number in attendance upon his obsequies bore testimony to the general respect to his

To ARRIVE TO-DAY .- The following passengers left Hamilton yesterday for Pioche, who will arrive on to-day's stage: Emma Watts, Miss Wilson, Mrs. Smith Miss Davis and M. Shuber.

TIMES DULL.-Though times may be dull and money tight, improvements in building and grading continue with the usual activity. All are confident of lively times on the opening of spring.

BAGGAGE CHECKS. - The stage line between Pioche and Hamilton is now provided with baggage checks—a great convenience to passengers as well as the company.

THEATER. - Last night a full house appeared, on the occasion of C. M. Hud-son's benefit. The audience evidently had a pleasant evening's entertainment.
